

Fire Prevention Guidelines – No 9 Burghley Lane, Stamford

Reviewed October 2024

Fire Risk Assessment for No 9 Burghley Lane is low risk, we ask guests to follow these guidelines to prevent fires.

No open fires – the chimneys are blocked off.

No candles of any kind including birthday cake candles.

No BBQ's in courtyard

No portable electric heaters

Please switch off all lights and oven and hob when accommodation not occupied.

Please use hair straighteners responsibly make sure turned off after use and leave to cool in a safe position

No charging of e bikes and scooters overnight and only to be charged when property occupied and charging supervised.

No charging of electric vehicle from the property

No fireworks inside or outside the property

No smoking

No deep fat fryers to be brought to use at property.

Thank you for following these guidelines